

San José Clean Energy: A Community Choice Aggregation (CCA) Program

Exploring a cleaner way to power San José

Environmental Services

Delivering world class utility services and programs to improve our health, environment and economy

San José Environmental Services

- Regional Wastewater Facility serves 1.4 million residents, 17,000 businesses in South Bay
- Muni Water serves over 100,000 customers
- South Bay Water Recycling serves 750 customers
- Garbage and Recycling serve 220K single family homes, 95K apt./condo

Community Choice Aggregation

RENEWABLE ENERGY
Electric Generation

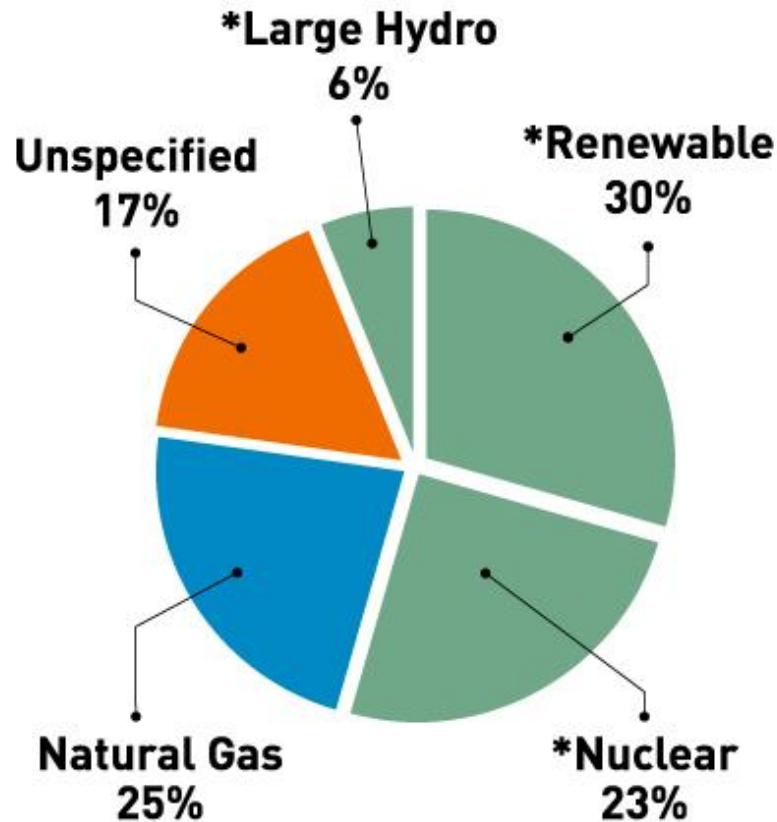

SAME SERVICE AS ALWAYS
Electric Delivery

YOUR COMMUNITY CHOICE
A Greener Electric Option

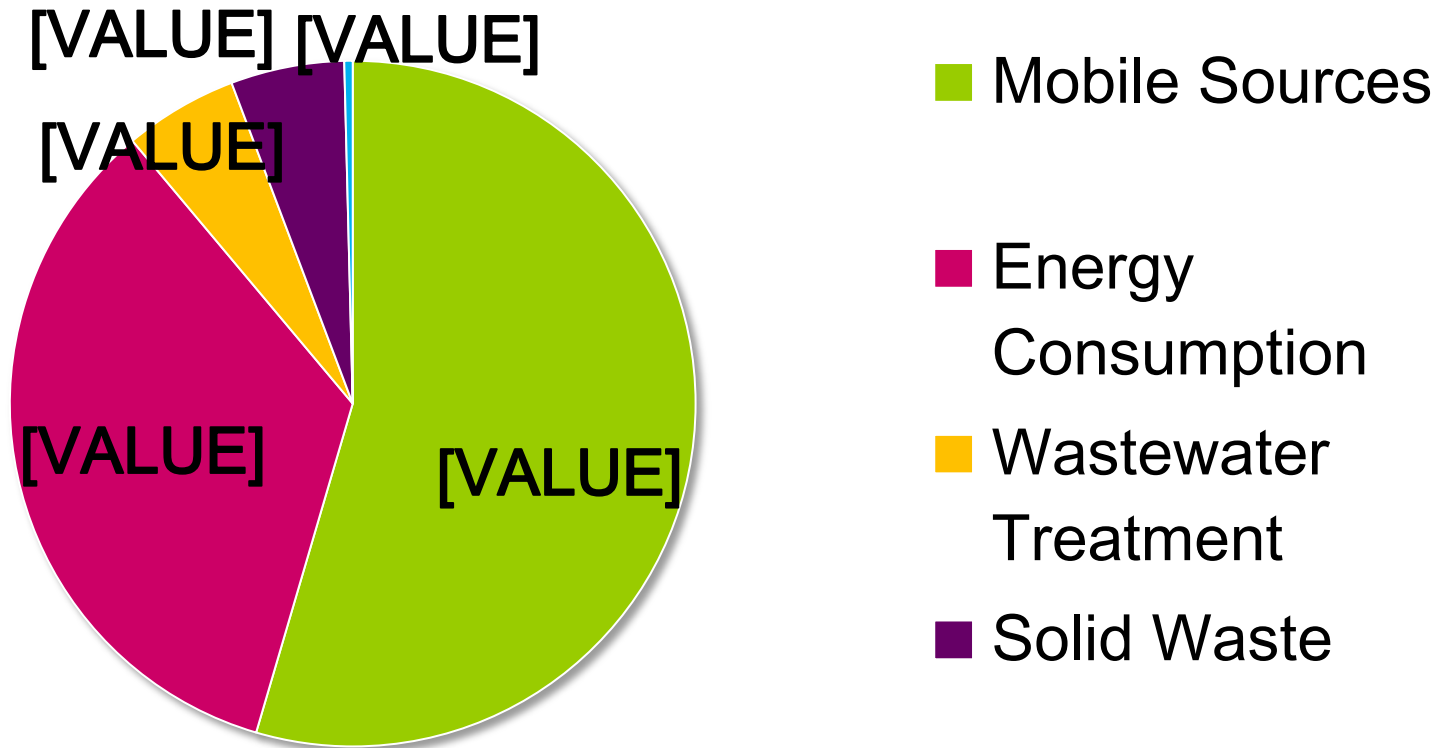

CCAs in California

PG&E Electricity Power Mix - 2015

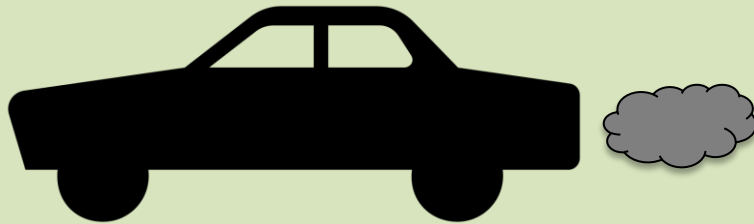

San José greenhouse gas emissions by sector - 2014

San José Clean Energy Impact

50% Renewable
Electricity

-97,000

annually

100% Renewable
Electricity

-363,000

annually

SJCE Goals

- Choice
- Jobs
- More renewable energy options
- ↓ Greenhouse gas emissions
- Local economic benefits

Changes to my electricity bill?

- Seamless transition
- Same service & reliability
- Without interruption

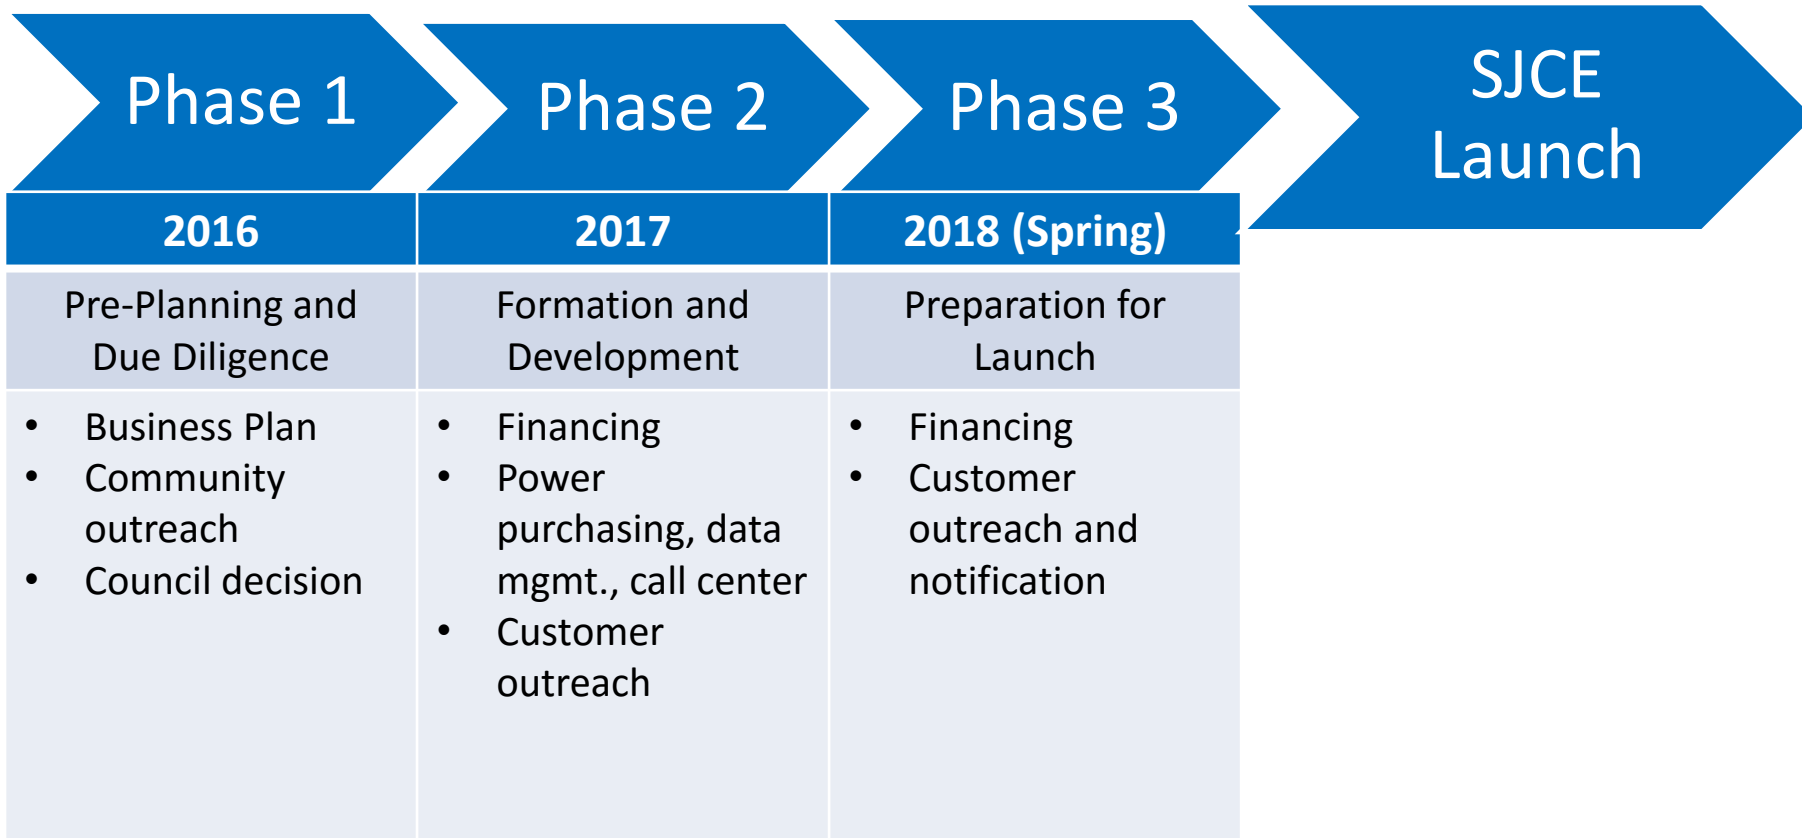

San José Clean Energy Exploration Status

- Business Plan
- Outreach
- Dec: City Council decision
 - Review business plan
 - Move forward or not

Next Steps

Q&A

- More Info: www.sjenvironment.org/sjce
 - Sign into “Notify Me” & “News Flash” to get latest SJCE news
- Email: sjce@sanjoseca.gov

